

Months of the Year

January is the first month.

It's usually cold.

February is the second month
when Valentines are sold.

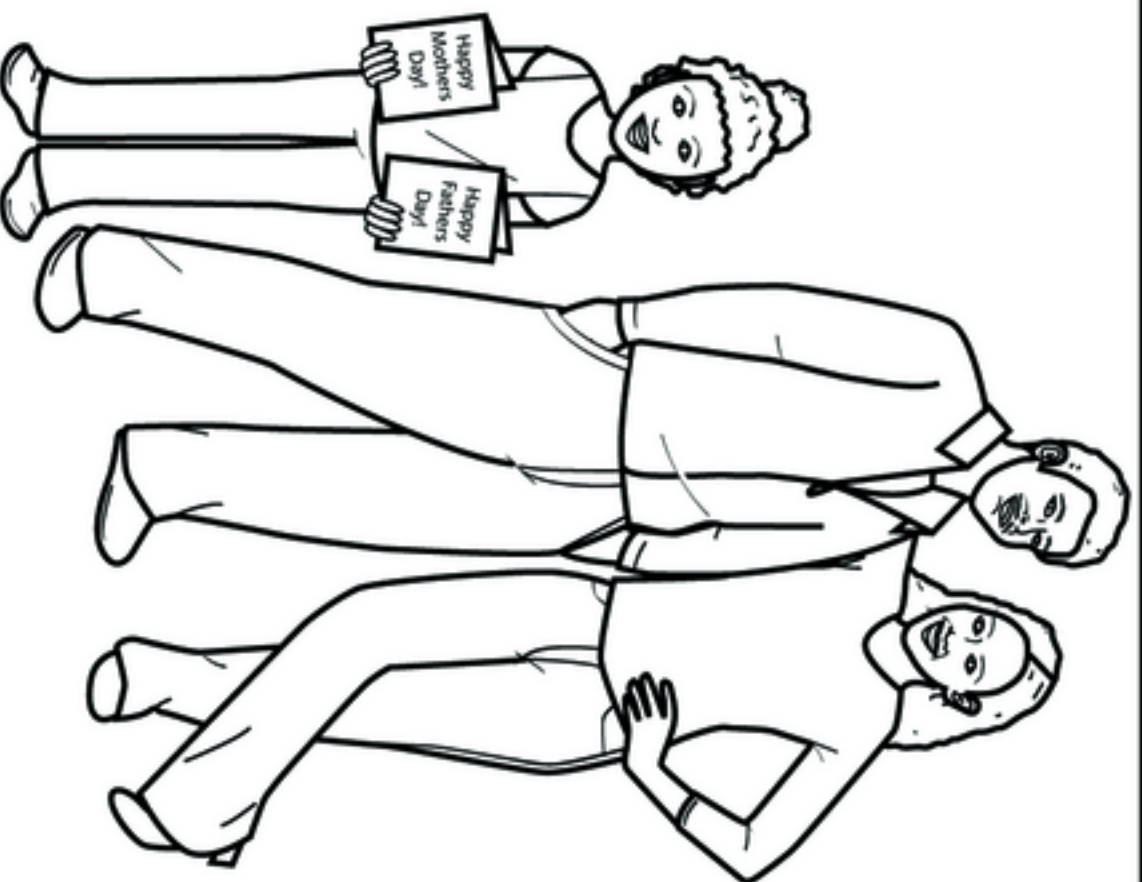

March is the third month.

It holds the first day of spring.

April is the fourth month.

April showers it will bring.

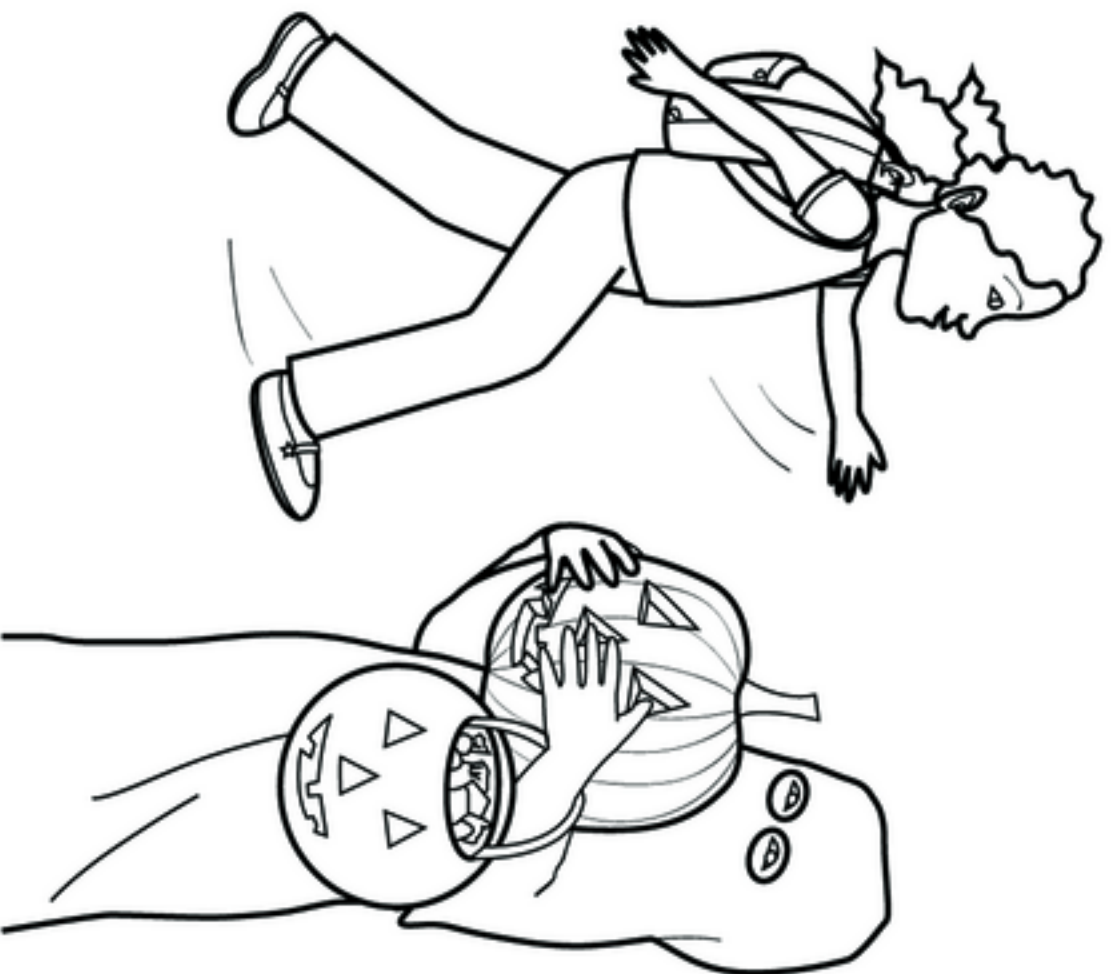

May is the fifth month.

In this month it's Mother's Day.

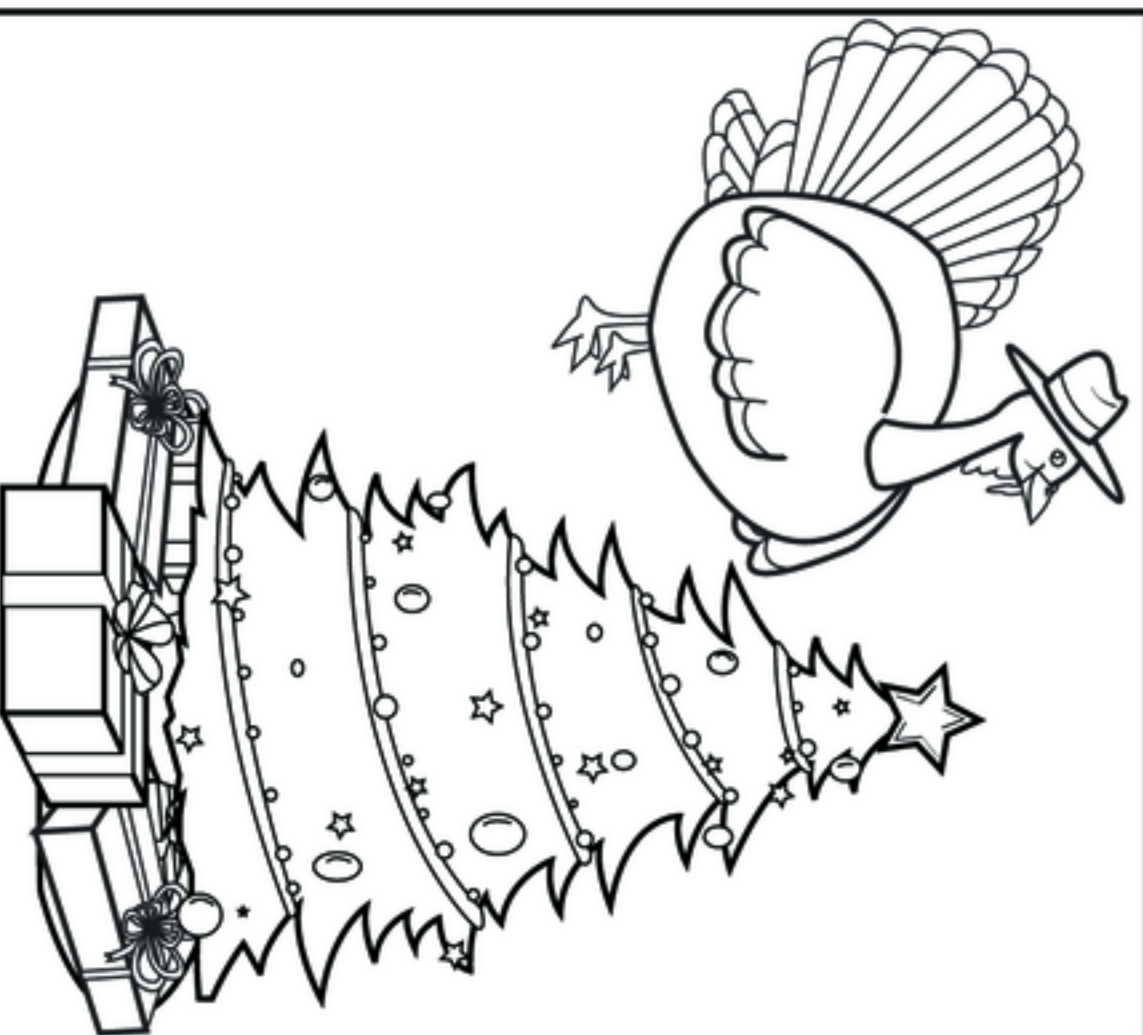

June is the start of summer,
and it has Father's Day.

July is the seventh month when fireworks light up the sky.
August is the eighth month.
It's usually quite dry.

September is the ninth month
when kids go back to school.
October is the tenth month.
Kids think Halloween is cool.

November is the eleventh month.

Thanksgiving is on its way.

December is the twelfth month,
and it has Christmas Day.