

Grandparents Day

Grandpa Ben is my dad's dad.
He's always happy, never sad.

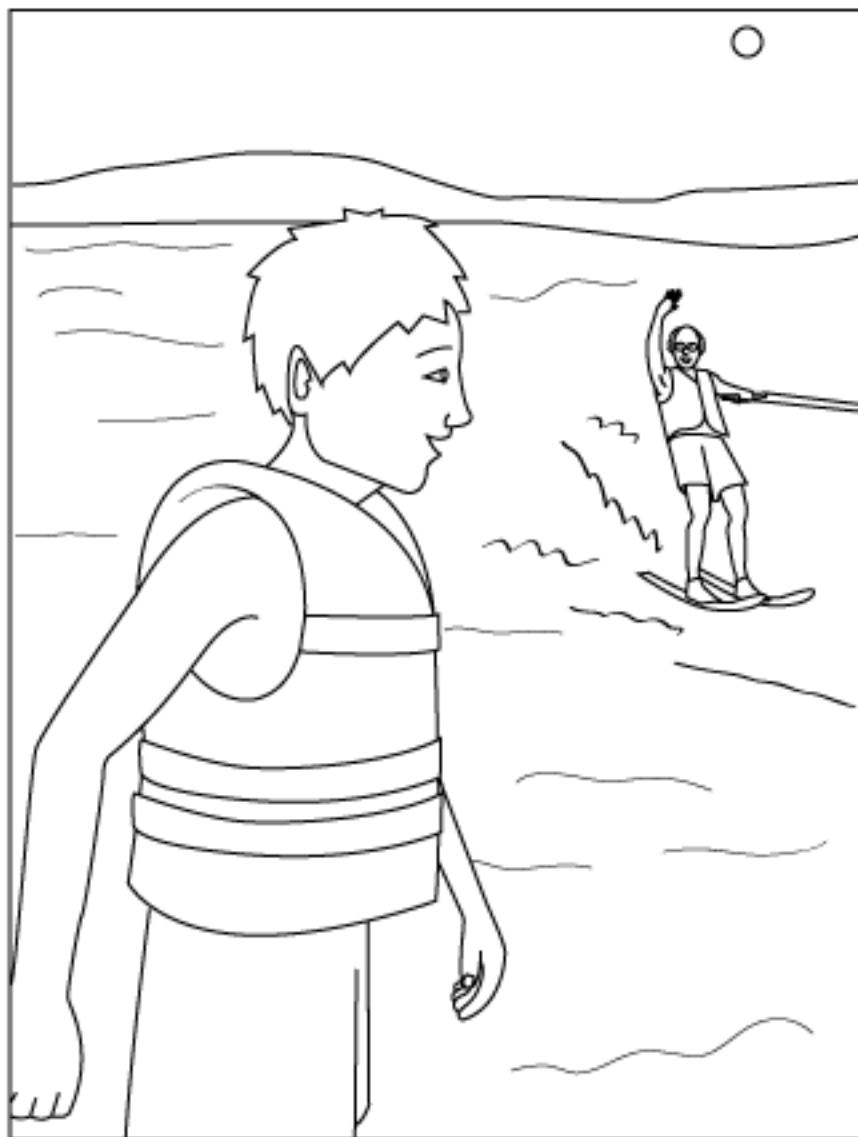

Grandma Ann is my Dad's mom.
She's pretty, and she's always calm.

Grandpa Tom is Mother's dad.
He always wears a shirt
that's plaid.

Grandma Bess is my Mom's mother. This grandma hugs me like no other.

Grandpa Ben rides bikes with me.
Grandpa Tom taught me to water-ski.

Grandma Bess bakes me homemade bread. Grandma Ann helps me make my bed.

Grandpa Ben reads me comic books. Grandpa Tom baits my fishing hooks.

Grandmas, Grandpas: I love you. Someday I might be one, too!

Draw: Everyone has grandparents. Some live far away, and some live close. Some are young, and some are old. Some are living, and some are dead. Draw a picture of your family. Include your grandparents in your family picture. If you do not know what they look like, imagine they look something like you! Even if they are not alive, they are still part of who you are.
